

Government to Survey Damage by Cold, Snow

EDMONTON — Premier Manning announced Monday the start of a crop-damage survey in Alberta and said that the provincial government is "ready to take any practical steps feasible to help meet the problems of the industry."

The provincial government will also support the Alberta Federation of Agriculture in its requests that the federal government issue another payment immediately on the last crop year and arrange a system of bank loans for farmers, he said.

Mr. Manning made the announcements following a meeting between the cabinet and a farm delegation headed by Roy C. Marler, AFA president. Also present was Henry Young, president of Farmers' Union of Alberta.

Mr. Manning stressed the "importance of individual farmers who require seed and feed grain making what arrangements they can at the earliest possible date." He did not elaborate.

"The over-all agriculture economy remains stable and sound," the premier said, but faces the immediate problems of crop damage due to frost and adverse weather.

The province-wide survey would be to ascertain "as accurately as possible the extent of damage and the outlook in various districts." It would also attempt to determine how much seed and feed grain there is on Alberta farms.

Mr. Manning estimated the survey will take roughly two weeks. It would be followed by another meeting between the cabinet and farm leaders.

Alberta Wheat Pool Crop Report

Alberta's wheat crop is now expected to total only 96 million bushels according to the latest Alberta Wheat Pool crop report. This is down substantially from the Pool's estimate made two weeks ago and indicates the smallest crop to be harvested in this province since 1945. The oats and barley crops have also been reduced.

Yields which a few weeks ago promised to be well above average have now declined to below normal. Frost and excess moisture were the main factors in lowering production but rust further halved and extensive sawfly damage have also contributed to the decline.

The frost which occurred on September 16 and 19 sharply reduced the yields of late crops in central and northern regions. Oats were particularly hard hit as a large part of that crop was still green. Many oat fields may not be cut except possibly for fodder.

As well as cutting yields, the frost caused heavy loss through the lowering of grades in all but the extreme southern portion of the province. Again oats were most severely damaged and there is bound to be a shortage of seed oats in the province next year.

Wedding Bells

FORMER IRMA BOY WEDS

ENDERBURY, Aug. 30—A wedding of wide interest throughout the Okanagan Valley which united two prominent Enderbury families was solemnized in Regular Baptist Church at 4 o'clock on Thursday afternoon, when Corrienne Margaret Kope became the bride of Garth Wilson Johnson.

Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Kope are parents of the bride. Father and mother of the groom are Mayor and Mrs. N. S. Johnson.

Rev. F. J. Wylie performed the double-ring ceremony. Miss Barbara Johnson, sister of the groom, played the wedding music. Rev. Stanley Schlaak, of Quesnel, was groomsmen, and ushering were Glen Johnson and Albert Holler, the latter of Armstrong. Junior ushers were Brian Johnson and James Kope, who lit tall white tapers at the altar just before the service.

Miss Betty Agnew, of Vancouver, sang "A Wedding Prayer," during the signing of the register.

The church had been beautifully decorated. A bank of white just before the service. Miss Betty Agnew, of Vancouver, sang "A Wedding Prayer," during the signing of the register.

The bride, who walked down the aisle with her father, wore a white gown, floor length, in redingote style, mounted over heavy white satin. Two wide panels of Chantilly lace, down the front of the skirt revealed an accordion pleated net under-skirt. The strapless bodice had a Chantilly lace jacket styled with a stand-up collar and lily pointed sleeves. A floor length net veil was held by a coronet-styled headpiece, and she carried a white Bible, crested with sweet-heart roses, stephanotis and heather. She wore her groom's gift of a pearl necklace, and for "something old," the bride carried a last handkerchief held by her mother at her own wedding.

Maid of honor was Miss Hedy Reimer of Abbotsford, who wore blue net over taffeta, toe-tied style. Headress was on tone and her flowers were fashioned into a Colonial nosegay.

All attendants were classmates of the bride in Vancouver General Hospital school of nursing. Bridesmaids Miss Margaret Schmitt and Miss Martins of Abbotsford, whose frocks were of pink net over taffeta. Lace bodices and jackets topped floor-length skirts, the latter encircled by two wide bands of lace at the hem. The bride's coronet in their hair and colonial bouquets completed their dainty ensembles.

Little Grace Elaine Kope was junior bridesmaid for her sister. Her fair hair was garlanded with a circlet of yellow flowers to match her long frock of yellow net over rustling taffeta. Her diminutive nosegay matched her headress.

A reception to 125 guests was held in the Drill Hall following the ceremony, when Mrs. Kope and Mrs. Johnson assisted the bridal party to receive. The former wore a smart afternoon dress in dove-blue, a navy straw hat and navy accessories, and a pink carnation corsage. The mother of the groom wore a white picture hat with her navy blue ensemble with white crescents and a pink carnation shoulder spray.

The bride's table, decorated by Mrs. W. Stulwell was centred with a three-tiered wedding cake decorated by Mrs. Kope, flanked by ivory tapers. A silver slipper, which had been on her parents' wedding cake ornamented the top layer.

Rev. F. J. Wylie was master of ceremonies and proposed the toast to the bride, to which the groom replied. Albert Holler replied for a toast made by Rev. S. Schlaak to the bridemaids.

Miss Margaret Berg and Miss Sally Walker poured tea from a table centred with a large white candle and soft-toned flowers.

Miss Barbara Johnson played the piano, and Mrs. G. S. Milton and Miss Betty Agnew sang.

Before leaving for her honeymoon the bride gave her bouquet to Mrs. R. E. Stouffer, grandmother of the groom. For travelling, Mrs. Johnson changed into a white linen suit checked with navy blue, a navy blue hat, red shoes and purse.

Following a short honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Johnson will leave for Chicago by motor to attend Trinity Seminary Bible School, where the groom will study for three years and take his minister's degree, while his wife will take education courses. Upon the completion of their studies they will both return to Canada.

Glen-Coa Gleanings

Our congratulations to Lorne Fuder for winning a Grade IX scholarship. Keep up the good work, Lorne.

Miss Evelyn Erickson was home last week-end.

Mrs. Likness, of Veteran is visiting her daughters, Mrs. B. Gulbraa and Mrs. L. Peterson. Edmonton visitors on Monday last were Mr. S. Nilson, accompanied by Erling and Sigmund Gulbraa.

It was gratifying to our young people to see the fine attendance for their program last Sunday evening. They did a good job of presenting the pageant "Christ is Our Life." There were visitors from several other churches as well as from Irma. A fellowship lunch was enjoyed after the program.

MAX FERGUSON — Why is Max Ferguson hitch-hiking from Toronto to Halifax? Simple—because "The Rawhide Show" will be back for another season on the CBC Trans-Canada network and it will originate from Halifax instead of Toronto this year. It's no secret, of course, that Ferguson has a lot to do with Rawhide and his boys; all the different voices on the show are done by Max. With old Rawhide himself and Rawhide's "boys" as he calls them, Ferguson uses as many as a dozen different voices on one program, though he has not yet managed to have them all talking at once. The little gaffer above, is not one of Rawhide's "boys." He is Ferguson's son Scott. The rest of the family has also moved to Halifax, but, we are told, they took a train.

WHAT'S DOING IN OTHER TOWNS

(Wainwright Star)

Commando hockey received a welcome boost at the meeting held last week for the purpose of reviving the spirits of the Wainwright Hockey Commission. This body, who had done a bang-up job for the past two years was getting somewhat weary of well-doing and were very anxious to share the burden with some of those who had been enjoying the results of their efforts.

About 25 attended the meeting, several interested groups were represented. Camp Wainwright was represented by Major Millward and Moe Deib, Ron Hallett and Gerry Harden represented the players, and P. M. Armishaw represented the town of Wainwright.

(Vegreville Observer)

At last the Town of Vegreville is going to come into possession of a gymnasium which will be built by the taxpayers of the Vegreville School Division. It has taken fifty years to obtain this structure but finally we are getting it. The only trouble, it is being constructed in the year 1954 with the year 1900 ideas.

Gymnasiums like any other buildings are constructed for a specific purpose. In this case the primary aim is to provide recreational facilities for students, both during school hours for physical education work and for after school hour sports. No doubt the building will also be used for student gatherings, the presentation of plays, operettas, concerts and other events of this nature.

(Sedgewick Press)

At about two a.m. on Thursday of last week, thieves broke into the store owned by Bearish Bros., at Sedgewick, and made off with an estimated $1000 worth of various goods.

Entry was gained by smashing the glass out of a side-door window, and it is believed the loot was hauled away in a red Chev. half-ton truck.

Goods taken consisted of eight shot guns, two rifles, seven or eight cases of shotgun shells, a number of cases of small rifle ammunition, two electric shavers and a pair of binoculars.

Cash didn't seem to interest the thieves too much, although one cash register was looted of 25c pieces.

(Alliance Times)

The Alliance Sidewalk crew put their shovels, hammers, etc., away in mothballs until next spring after laying nearly one mile of 4-foot sidewalk on Alliance streets during the past few months. According to the figures from the Crew Foreman, Harold Torgerson, 4,530 feet of 4-foot sidewalk and 350 feet of 8-foot sidewalks were laid. This means that a total of 5320 feet of 4-foot sidewalks were laid, just 50 feet short of one mile.

Main Street is now complete with cement sidewalks, as also is First and Second Avenues. It is expected that more sidewalks will be laid in the spring, fronting residential properties.

(Castor Advance)

Consort residents went to the polls last Monday to vote on the water and sewer by-law. The results shows that the village will have a sewer system which it approved by a count of 90 to 42, but rejected the water by a painful margin of one vote. The final count on the water was 89 for and 45 against—just short of one vote to give it the two-thirds majority needed.

(Bonnyville Tribune)

Not so very long ago this town was called "the toughest town North of Edmonton. That unsavory reputation had already spread far and wide, so much so that the people of Bonnyville felt somewhat ashamed to be called Bonnyvilians. Traffic laws were not enforced, U-turns were made with the greatest of ease right in the middle of Main St.

Speeding traffic through the town was no uncommon sight and regular free-for-alls could be witnessed mostly every night at bar-closing time. Without exaggerating, Bonnyville looked like a seashore town when the Navy was on leave.

Today, the traffic situation is just like that in any other busy town, interdicts are at least more discreet in their illegal drinking. Fights are few and far between, even when the bars close, the occupants are quite orderly on their way home. Profane language in public places is down to a minimum and all in all, Bonnyville is a pretty nice little busy town, thanks to a good policeman Const. R. MacLaren.

(Hilden Herald)

On the opening day of hunting this fall some 60 odd hunters were home. Profane language in public places is down to a minimum and all in all, Bonnyville is a pretty nice little busy town, thanks to a good policeman Const. R. MacLaren.

Badge of Devotion
The peptic ulcer, says Sir Heneage Ogilvie, surgeon of Guy's Hospital in London, is "the price we pay for civilization... the stigma of devotion to duty, the badge of the trusted and burdened executive."

Affecting an ever-increasing number of people, peptic ulcer starts from an infection, an injury or, more often, from an above-normal quantity of gastric acid in the stomach.

The ulcer, described as a small open sore, occurs in the part of the digestive system—the wall of the stomach or in the first six inches of the small intestine—that is exposed to gastric juices. Most ulcer cases are treated medically rather than surgically.

Even in cases of a serious complication, many doctors, like W. M. Eagleson of the Hamilton General Hospital, Hamilton, Ont., recommend conservative treatment when ever possible. In order to avoid major operations, Dr. Eagleson treated perforated ulcer cases with antibiotics and through other means. Most of the cases responded well.

In common peptic ulcer cases, a rigidly bland diet is prescribed, antacid compounds are given, and drugs are used to block some of the nerves—all with the idea of cutting down the flow of irritating gastric juices. Sedatives and psychotherapy may also be used.

It is now well known that, under a skillful doctor's care, serious complications can be avoided, and co-operative patients usually are able to lead normal lives.

Sued Cigarette Firm; Man Dies of Cancer

ST. LOUIS—Ira C. Lowe, who filed a $500,000 damage suit against a cigaret company last June charging smoking caused him to have lung cancer, died of cancer Saturday at his home here.

Lowe, 39, had named the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co. and the Shop Ezy market here as defendants in the circuit court suit.

Earlier Lowe had sued four tobacco firms and a market chain for $250,000 damages in a similar suit in federal court but dropped this action.

Lowe, in the circuit court suit, blamed the cancer on cigaret smoking, said he smoked the Reynolds firm product and bought the cigarets at the St. Louis market.

Payment of federal family allowances and universal old age pensions cost between $13 million and $14 million a week.

First of its Kind Anywhere in the World

ALL IN A MATTER OF SECONDS—You can cash a cheque or bank your money without leaving the seat of your car at the curb-teller which the Bank of Montreal has installed as part of its newly opened main office at London, Ont. It saves endless time and trouble looking for a parking space and queuing up inside the bank, and most transactions are completed in less than a minute. The first curb-service banking unit in Canada, this new installation was designed by the bank's chief architect in collaboration with the manufacturers, and is the only one of its kind in the world. Picture shows London's Mayor Allan Rush, an old customer of the bank who cut the ribbon signaling the opening of "Canada's most modern banking office," making the first deposit in the new bank. Serving him at the teller's window is Gordon Ball, B of M president, who 30 years before was teller-accountant at the little Ailsa Craig branch, 17 miles from London. Standing by the curb-teller are Broadcaster Ward Connell and B. C. Gardner, chairman of the bank's board of directors.

PRIMATE PRAISES LIFE IN CANADA

LONDON—The Archbishop of Canterbury returned today from Canada and the United States and said: "Why a lot more people don't emigrate to Canada I can't think."

"It's such a lovely country and is on the edge of immense developments," said the archbishop, Dr. Geoffrey Fisher, who with his wife has completed a 12,000-mile trip which included the World Council of Churches at Evanston, Ill., and 25 days in Canada.

He said he met persons in Canada "who had emigrated 40 years ago and people who had gone out six months ago and all were as happy as they could be."

"Western Canada wants as many British folk as they can get. I think there is no doubt that a great number of people get a far more challenging life there than here in England. They enjoy it very much indeed."

The Irma United Church Sunday School will hold its annual Fall Rally next Sunday, October 10. This will be Promotion Sunday as well as Rally Sunday. All who previously attended please be on hand and bring as many new members as possible.

Cpl. R. E. Moyer, Mrs. Moyer and children left Irma early this week after holidaying here at the R. L. Simmermon home. They will visit with Cpl. Moyer's parents on their way back to Bayville.

Anyone having clothing, wool or donations of money for the WMS Korean parcel, please leave same with any of the WMS members by October 13.

Mrs. V. Hutchinson with Mrs. Hager from Devon visited at Wainwright early this week with Mrs. J. Fenton and Mrs. R. D. Allen.

The rain, snow and bitter frost of last week-end made life unpleasant and unprofitable for all and sundry. Whether one was trying to rescue a few sodden vegetables and bulbs in a small town garden or looking disconsolately at a hundred acre field of unharvested grain in the country, there was nothing amusing about the situation. However, at time of writing, it seems to be drying and warming up a bit (wish the wind wouldn't keep slithering 'round to the south-east) and maybe we'll get some much needed Indian summer.

Gerald Glasgow, who has been doing work on the highway between here and Edgerton, was badly injured early this week when a gravel loader fell over on him. The accident occurred just after a truck had left the pit and Gerald was under the loader for half an hour before another truck arrived and found him. He has been taken to Wainwright hospital with multiple injuries.

The CGIT have organized for another season under the leadership of Mrs. Inglis. A nice gathering of girls came for the first meeting last week and Alice and Carol Fischer gave a very interesting report on camp at Whitney Lake this past summer.

On Wednesday afternoon of last week, Johnny McLean had a surprise visit from his brother Jim of Tyfen, Sask. The two brothers had not met since 1938.

Congratulations to Lorraine Smallwood, Leslie Ballentine and Lorne Fuder who won three of the four scholarships awarded to the Wainwright School Division for Grade Nine students.

Mrs. R. L. Eaton returned to Wainwright hospital this week for further treatment.

Mrs. A. Miles has also been in Wainwright hospital for a few days.

Allen Inglis, nephew of Rev. H. W. Inglis, arrived at Irma on Tuesday from Wynton, Ont., for a two weeks holiday here.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Dyck and daughter, Mrs. Foulkes and sons, all of Edmonton spent last week-end at Irma with Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Hill.

Mrs. L. L. Guiltner is a patient in Wainwright hospital.

Best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Owen, the former Gladys Clesson, who's marriage took place on Wednesday of last week.

Mrs. A. R. McRoberts sharpened her pencils, dusted off her books and took over on Wednesday last as substitute teacher in Mrs. Chase's room.

Della Symington and Lorraine Smallwood are chosen as delegates to attend the Olds Provincial Conference of the Canadian Girls in Training this coming week-end.

Much sympathy is felt for the five Briard children whose mother passed away last spring and whose father was found dead last week-end.

Notice to Junior W.A. members—Will each member please be prepared to hand in one novelty and your sewing and fancy work at the next regular meeting.
